The Gorilla is a wonderful beast,
Who eats such a giant feast...

As they are a herbivore,
They need to eat more and more...

Their favourite food is bamboo,
That’s funny it’s the panda’s too...

The Gorilla’s home Africa,
In the jungle, not the savannah...

Sadly their endangered apes,
More rare that a bunch of grapes...

Poachers shoot and wood cutters cut,
They feed the Gorilla’s bones to their mutt...

We don’t want them like King Kong,
Or we’ll hear the extinction gong...

So recycle your phones, whatever you do,
And say to Gorillas, I love you too.
